

“It is important to keep track of our progress to acquire funding from sponsors” - Barry

“I educate students about the theory behind cooking techniques” - Sindi

“It is important for students to improve their life and communication skills and develop good habits required in the working industry” - Nceba

“I educate the students about culinary skills and help them execute cooking techniques” - Zanele

“I manage day-to-day operations and communication with sponsors and graduates” - Melinda

“I assist the head chefs with lecturing and planning the daily schedule” - Yonela

“I assist with management of day-to-day operations and administrative tasks” - Kim

“ It is important to maintain communication with the school to inform administration about emergencies and information updates” - Alumni students

“It is important to maintain my personal information and generate a CV for employers” - Students

“I evaluate the progress of the school before providing funds or resources” - Sponsors